STATEMENT: The entire delay in filing the required notice of a foreign or international filing from the due date for the required notice until the filing of a grantable petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b) was unintentional. [NOTE: The United States Patent and Trademark Office may require additional information there is a question as to whether either the abandonment or the delay in filing a petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b) was unintentional (MPEP 711.03(c), subsections (III)(C) and (D)).]

WARNING:

Petitioner/applicant is cautioned to avoid submitting personal information in documents filed in a patent application that may contribute to identity theft. Personal information such as social security numbers, bank account numbers, or credit card numbers (other than a check or credit card authorization form PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes) is never required by the USPTO to support a petition or an application. If this type of personal information is included in documents submitted to the USPTO, petitioners/applicants should consider redacting such personal information from the documents before submitting them to the USPTO. Petitioner/applicant is advised that the record of a patent application is available to the public after publication of the application (unless a non-publication request in compliance with 37 CFR 1.213(a) is made in the application) or issuance of a patent. Furthermore, the record from an abandoned application may also be available to the public if the application is referenced in a published application or an issued patent (see 37 CFR 1.14). Checks and credit card authorization forms PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes are not retained in the application file and therefore are not publicly available.

Petition to Revive

Included with the above identified application was a request that the above-identified application not be published under 35 U.S.C. §122(b). Applicant herein rescinds that request and notifies the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office of a foreign filing by submitting executed form PTO/SB/36. Because the rescission and notification is occurring more than 45 days after the date of filing the foreign application, Applicant also must petition to revive the application under 37 C.F.R. § 1.137 (b). Enclosed herewith, in accordance with 37 C.F.R. § 1.137 (b), is the required reply (the rescission and notification form), the petition fee and the required statement. Applicant's attorney has signed this Petition stating that the entire delay in filing the required rescission and notification from the date of foreign filing until the filing of this Petition was unintentional. Therefore, revival of the above-identified application is requested.

Respectfully submitted,
